

California State Athletic Commission

1424 Howe Ave. Ste. #33

Sacramento, CA 95825

www.dca.ca.gov/csac/

(916) 263-2195 FAX (916) 263-2197

2007 California State Athletic Commission Members

June Collison, of Etiwanda, has been appointed to the State Athletic Commission by Governor Schwarzenegger. She has served on the Commission since 2005. Collison has more than 18 years of healthcare management and financial experience and is currently the chief executive officer of Arrowhead Regional Medical Center. Collison competed in the 1984 Olympic Games and is a former 400 meter indoor run world record holder. Ms. Collison's term began April 13, 2007 and will end January 1, 2010.

Christopher Giza, M.D., of Culver City, has been appointed to the State Athletic Commission by Governor Schwarzenegger. He has served on the Commission since 2005. Dr. Giza currently serves as an assistant professor at the University of California, Los Angeles, David Geffen School of Medicine, as a pediatric neurologist at UCLA's Mattel Children's Hospital and as a researcher at the UCLA Brain Injury Research Center. Giza performed his internship at the University of Pennsylvania Medical Center and his residency at UCLA Medical Center. He is a former search and rescue team member for Yosemite National Park and is a member of the American Alpine Club and the National Neurotrauma Society. Giza is board certified in neurology and child neurology by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology. Dr. Giza's term began April 13, 2007 and will end on January 1, 2011.

Peter Lopez, of Encino, has been appointed to the State Athletic Commission by Governor Schwarzenegger. He has been a partner with the law firm Kleinberg, Lopez, Lange, Cuddy, Edel and Klein since 1997 where he specializes in entertainment law. Prior to that, Lopez was partner with Mitchell, Silberberg and Knupp. He is a former member of the American Bar Association Governing Board of Entertainment and Sports Industries and is involved with COACH for kids through Cedar Sinai Medical Center. Mr. Lopez's term began April 13, 2007 and will end on January 1, 2009.

Timothy Noonan, of Beverly Hills, has been appointed to the State Athletic Commission by Governor Schwarzenegger. Since 1996, he has served as president and chief executive officer for the Lockton Insurance Brokers Incorporated. From 1983 to 1996, Noonan was senior vice president for Jardine Insurance Brokers. Prior to that, he was an insurance agent for the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company from 1982 to 1983. Noonan is a member of the University of California, Los Angeles Center on Aging Board of Trustees and the California Association of Health Facilities. Mr. Noonan's term began April 13, 2007 and will end on January 1, 2009.

Julio Ramirez, Jr., of La Canada, has been appointed to the State Athletic Commission by the Speaker of the Assembly, Fabio Nunez. He is a Partner at The Blackstone Group/Park Hill Group. He currently serves as a trustee for the Los Angeles County Natural History Museum, Chair of the Board of Pacific Oaks College and Children's School in Pasadena, a trustee at Otis College of Art and Design in Los Angeles, and a director for the Los Angeles Metropolitan YMCA Board. Mr. Ramirez's term began on January 1, 2007 and will end on January 1, 2011.

Mario Rodriguez, of San Clemente, has been appointed to the State Athletic Commission by Governor Schwarzenegger. He has served as chief executive officer and president of the ad specialty and promotional products business of Jonathan Grey and Associates since 1986. Rodriguez is past president of the Hispanic Roundtable and past chair of the Latino Coalition Foundation. Additionally, Rodriguez serves on the National Latino Peace Officers Board of Directors as well as an Orange County Sheriff Reserve. Mr. Rodriguez's term began April 13, 2007 and will end on January 1, 2010.

Howard Rose, of Encino, has been appointed to the State Athletic Commission by the Chairman of the Senate Rules Committee, Don Perata. He currently serves as President of The Howard Rose Agency, Ltd. and is a former member of the California Film Commission. He served as the Director of Boxing for Univision Sports from fall 2000 thru December 2003. Mr. Rose is a graduate of the University of Washington. Mr. Rose's term began March 21, 2007 and will end on January 1, 2011.